Subject: Responding to messages

Hi Mike,
I know this was mentioned in a call but I don't think we came to resolution. How would you like to coordinate responding to email messages? I take it you have been bearing the brunt of things thus far. May I suggest that we take blocks of time to make it easy for each other and minimize duplication.

Since you have been the one to have to clear up most of the back stuff I would be willing to take the next "shift" as it were and handle things through the end of the month starting on Sunday, August 12th. The next shift would then begin on Sunday, September 2nd through Saturday, September 22nd. How does that sound to you?

Let me know if this is doable or if you have an alternative suggestion.

Peace,
Kirk

Good Morning -

I am the publisher of ARISE Magazine. I am hoping that you've had an opportunity to see ARISE. ARISE is the country's only national monthly publication for African American diverse people. I would like to have a conversation with you about partnering as your media sponsor for the Atlanta Pride Celebration. We just returned from DC for their Pride Celebration. ARISE was one of the official media sponsors for DC and we will act as media sponsor for Los Angeles "At The Beach" event.

Please let me know a convenient time to contact you and a number. If you have not seen ARISE I will see to it that you receive a copy of the publication.

Look forward to hearing from you.

To expedite the meeting as quickly as we can , I'll write up the agenda.

At this point these are some of the things we need to address :

- Resumes of new board members
- 2001 balances
- 2002 budget
- 5013c
- brief review of 2001 Pride
- 2002 Pride
- bills

Let me know what else we may need to go over.

Hi all,
Hope your weekend was enjoyable. I have received the sponsorship check from Aid Atlanta for Black Pride. They sent it to us directly (yeah) so we received the full $1,000. I also gave Sharon the $250.00 check for ZAMI's scholarship fund yesterday.

As a heads up during ZAMI's event, Malik committed Adodi Muse to creating a scholarship in Tony's honor for ZAMI. I pledged ITLA's support in helping to fund the scholarship and Sharon joined me in this. ZAMI and Adodi Muse will provide additional information as they create the scholarship.

On a different track, I will have to travel to Connecticut next week. I ask for your healing prayers for my father as he undergoes surgery. If there are any financial needs that have to be attended to before next week please call me.

Peace and blessings,
Kirk

Dear Atlanta Games, Incorporated:

In The Life Atlanta (ITLA) is proud to offer our support to Atlanta Games, Inc. (AGI) in the bid to bring the 2006 Gay Games to the City of Atlanta.

ITLA's five years of experience successfully hosting community workshops, cultural celebrations, and personal artistic performance, is a perfect complement to AGI's vision for the 2006 Gay Games. ITLA is willing to work with AGI as part of the team that organizes and produces the cultural and humanities vision of the 2006 Gay Games.

Please find attached a brief introduction to, and highlight of, ITLA's accomplishments over the years. We look forward to working with Atlanta Games, Inc. in bringing the world to Atlanta for the 2006 Gay Games.

Sincerely,

In The Life Atlanta

ITLA was formed in 1996 to serve the needs of Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual/Transsexual people of African descent. Through education, advocacy, coalition building programs and other activities ITLA fosters unity, pride, empowerment, and positive visibility resulting in a strong community voice. This enhances ITLA's ability to serve the needs of the L/G/B/T people of African descent community, which includes our elders, youth, allies, organizations and businesses affiliated with our community.

ITLA is also the official coordinator of Atlanta's Annual Labor Day Black Gay Pride Celebration during the Labor Day Holiday. Atlanta is host to the nation's third largest Black Gay Pride celebration attracting thousands of visitors from all over the world. Utilizing venues throughout the city, ITLA coordinates numerous events during the pride weekend including:

Art festivals
Book signings
Dance performances
Empowerment seminars
Family picnics
Kids activities
Musical concerts
Poetry readings
Social and cultural workshops

In 1998, ITLA was one of the hosts of the National Black Lesbian and Gay Leadership Forum's annual conference. ITLA was instrumental in assisting the conference in coordinating hotel selection, logistics, workshop coordination, hospitality and staffing.

ITLA has also played a key role in organizing celebrations honoring Bayard Rustin and educating the community on his role in helping to stage Martin Luther King's historic March on Washington. The focus of these celebrations is to celebrate the impact he has had on our community and bring awareness to those who are not familiar with his work, not just as a civil rights activist, but also as a proud black gay man.

ITLA values our role as a community member and leader. As such, ITLA has supported several community organizations including Aids Walk Atlanta, The Center, Atlanta Pride, ZAMI, and Second Sunday to name a few. ITLA welcomes any opportunity to further promote unity and celebrate diversity through events and activities within our community.

Dear Team Leader,

Congratulations! Thanks to the dedication, compassion and hard work of you and your team members, the 11th Annual AIDS Walk Atlanta was an amazing success. On behalf of the clients, volunteers and staff of AID Atlanta as well as the 14 other benefiting agencies, we extend a heartfelt thank you for participating. The funds that your team raised make a significant difference in the lives of people living with HIV and AIDS in metro Atlanta.

More than 8,000 caring individuals filled Piedmont Park on Sunday, October 14th. Men, women and children from all walks of life joined together to raise more than $1 million. Teams such as yours contributed over $600,000 collectively to that total.

We are pleased to announce that as of Friday, November 9th, our records indicate In The Life Atlanta registered 4 walkers and raised $525.00.

The strong showing of this year's AIDS Walk Atlanta teams helps to remind us that together we can successfully fight this epidemic. I thank you and each of your team members for your commitment and compassion.
